Approximately 90 cents of every dollar of revenue goes directly to program services. HeartShare is accredited by the Council on Accreditation of Services for Families and Children and meets the standards of Education and Research Foundation of the Better Business Bureau.

DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES SERVICES

Help children and adults of all ages make the most of their abilities and lead productive lives in the community.

EARLY CHILDHOOD CENTERS educate preschoolers, with and without disabilities, in integrated classes; education, therapy and recreation are available for preschoolers who are developmentally disabled and also may be physically challenged.

RESIDENTIAL SERVICES offer neighborhood-based group homes for adults with varying levels of disabilities and supported apartments for adults capable of living more independently in the community.

FAMILY SUPPORT SERVICES include respite/recreational programs, case management services, parent training, and a financial assistance program for children and adults living at home.

ADULT DAY SERVICES PROGRAMS create individualized and carefully planned learning activities, with a focus on community-based volunteer and work experiences.

CHILDREN AND FAMILY SERVICES

Help families meet the overwhelming challenges of daily life in New York City.

FOSTER CARE & ADOPTION SERVICES assist children at risk and those who can no longer remain with their biological families.

COMMUNITY-BASED FAMILY CENTERS help children and families in crisis stay together or be reunited.

YOUTH AND BEACON PROGRAMS offer after-school and weekend recreational activities and social services for families and community members.

COMMUNITY FOLLOW-UP SERVICES support adults, children and families affected by HIV/AIDS.

RESIDENTIAL HOUSING SERVICES provide comfortable living arrangements for adults and their families affected by HIV/AIDS.
