The 2021 Heart of a Champion Award

Deborah Norville

Anchor, "Inside Edition"

Goodnight!

Dear Friends,

“Be the Light” is the theme of HeartShare’s 2021 Virtual Gala, and that’s because it’s time to shine. No doubt, 2020 was hard on everyone, even more so for those in HeartShare’s care—people with autism and other developmental disabilities. Covid-19 upended their lives, cutting them off from their loved ones, their cherished routines and the outside world. Your support helps HeartShare help them, and by joining us at the 2021 Virtual Gala, you’ve shown your support.

Tonight, we invite you to toast the achievements of three remarkable honorees who are dedicated to being the light by assisting people of all abilities live independent lives:

Chris Perry, President of Broadridge Financial Solutions, Inc., will receive the 2021 HeartShare Visionary Award which is presented to a person whose work honors our past, shapes our present and transforms our future by building a foundation for success.

Deborah Norville, anchor of “Inside Edition,” will receive the 2021 Heart of a Champion Award which is given to an individual whose commitment to family and community transforms the landscape for underserved and marginalized populations.

There’s a third honoree tonight—recipient of the first and only HeartShare Leadership, Innovation & Impact Award—and I would like to thank everyone gathered here for joining me as I celebrate 51 incredible years at HeartShare. I am humbled to be in your company and you have my deepest gratitude for the privilege of leading this amazing organization.

Sincerely,

Be the Light

Shining Moments from 2020

A Concert for Life

For an evening of music and entertainment honoring HeartShare's essential workers, we lined up virtual performances by some of the brightest stars of Broadway, TV and the big screen, including Ali Stroker, Gregory Jbara, Tamara Tunie, Abigail Hawk, Sean Ringgold, Ashley De La Rosa, Maysoon Zayid and 2019 "America's Got Talent" winner Kodi Lee. A good time was had by all! The reviews said it all: Awesome! Wonderful! Fabulous! Joyful! Perfect!

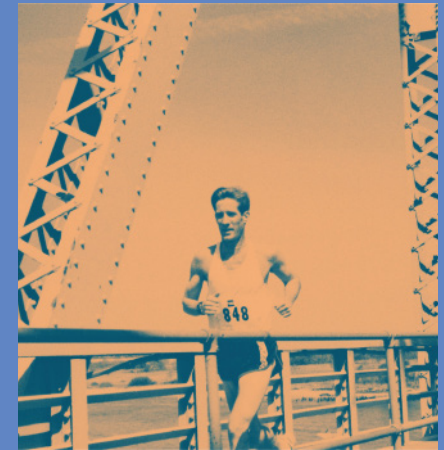

Heroes Work Here

On several occasions throughout 2020, HeartShare friends, family and staff organized drive-by rallies past our residences to spread love and appreciation for our direct support professionals, nurses and management teams. "Their dedication and compassion know no bounds," says Linda Tempel, Executive Director of Developmental Disabilities Services. "We can never thank them enough for the difference they make each and every day."

Going the Distance

In 2020, the Buckley's-Kennedy's Run—an annual community fundraiser for HeartShare—celebrated its 40th anniversary and was reimagined as an online celebration. In lieu of a 5K run through the streets of Breezy Point, runners were invited to post their favorite memories, photos and videos on a dedicated Facebook page, or film their socially distanced run around the block, along the shore or in their backyard and posting the results.

Cake Boss

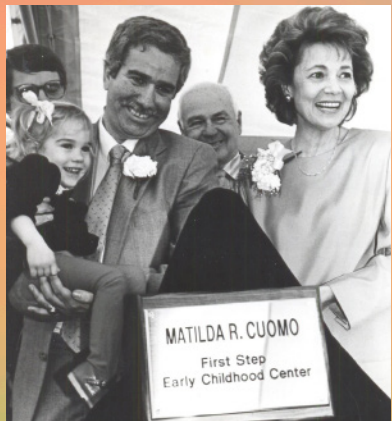

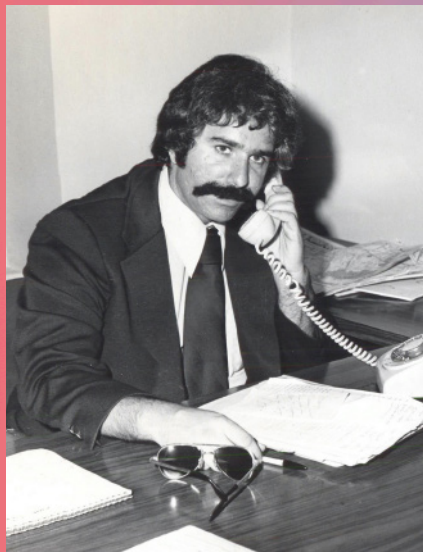

Master baker Pat Giuna, owner of Jean Danet Pastry Shoppe in Bay Ridge, Brooklyn, shared his secrets and demonstrated the fine art of cake decoration with an Independence Day theme in "Baking with Pat," a virtual class and mini-fundraiser for HeartShare that was webcast live from his bakery via Zoom just in time to add some fireworks to holiday barbecues. It's safe to say that a good time was had by all.

ArtShare in the Time of Covid-19

The 2020 edition of ArtShare, HeartShare's annual exhibition of art created by individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities, was held at Realty Collective LLC's Redhook gallery, Compère Collective, and served as a symbolic placeholder for ArtShare's annual November gallery show. The exhibition brought awareness to the experiences of the I/DD community during many months of physical distancing.

Congratulations on 51 years of Service, William R. Guarinello!

The 2021 HeartShare Visionary Award

Chris Perry

President

Broadridge Financial Solutions, Inc.

Beyond his duties as President of Broadridge Financial Solutions, Inc., Chris Perry has dedicated himself to ensuring that everyone has access to competent and affordable financial advice, products and services.

Perry served as a member of the Board of the Make-A-Wish Foundation of New Jersey for over 10 years and currently serves as a Board Member of NPower, which provides underprivileged youths and military veterans with the opportunity to build tech skills and achieve their potential.

He is also a sponsor of the Women on Wall Street Association, a New York-based business leadership organization that helps accelerate careers of women in financial services and unites business professionals in support of equality, executive leadership and breaking the glass ceiling.

For all of his ongoing efforts to help those in need rise above, we will present Perry with the 2021 HeartShare Visionary Award for work that honors our past, shapes our present and transforms our future by building a foundation for success for HeartShare and the community we support. Chris holds a B.S. in Finance and Economics from Northern Illinois University and an MBA in Marketing from Lewis University.

The 2021 HeartShare Leadership, Innovation & Impact Award

William R. Guarinello

President and Chief Executive Officer

HeartShare Human Services of New York

From social worker to CEO: It's a one-of-a-kind story about a one-of-a-kind leader. Our President and Chief Executive Officer William R. Guarinello started his career at HeartShare in 1970 as a 20-year-old case worker when the organization was known as the Catholic Guardian Society of Brooklyn and Queens.

Over the course of the next 51 years, Guarinello steadily rose through the ranks, spearheading new programs and initiatives to assist the developmentally disabled in the wake of the Willowbrook School scandal. Guarinello became Deputy Director in 1980, Executive Director in 1985 and President and CEO in 1993. Under his leadership and vision, HeartShare established the NYS Regents-Chartered HeartShare School in 2007 and affiliated to form HeartShare St. Vincent's Services in 2014, transforming HeartShare into the third-largest child welfare agency in New York City with more than 100 program locations serving at-risk children and families, as well as developmentally disabled clients and their families in Brooklyn, Queens, Staten Island, the Bronx and in 60 of the 62 New York State counties.

For his aspire-to-inspire approach, his out-of-the-box vision, for being the light that never goes out, we will honor Guarinello with the first—and only—HeartShare Leadership, Innovation & Impact Award for his half-century of dedication to meeting the needs of New York's most vulnerable.

The 2021 Heart of a Champion Award

Deborah Norville

Anchor

“Inside Edition”

Two-time Emmy Award winner Deborah Norville is anchor of “Inside Edition,” the nation’s number one daily news magazine. Ratings jumped 15 percent the week Norville joined the program and have remained high ever since. “Inside Edition” is among the top five television shows in first-run syndication and reaches a daily audience of approximately five million viewers.

Norville, the longest serving anchor on American television, is a member of the Broadcasting & Cable Hall of Fame. She joined “Inside Edition” in 1995 from CBS News where she was anchor and correspondent. Norville is the former co-host of NBC’s “Today” and anchor of NBC “News at Sunrise.” During her career she has hosted the primetime “Deborah Norville Tonight” on MSNBC, the national “Deborah Norville Show” on the ABC Talk Radio Network and been an anchor and reporter for WMAQ-TV in Chicago. She began her reporting career at WAGA-TV in Atlanta, while still a student at the University of Georgia, where she was elected to Phi Beta Kappa and graduated summa cum laude, First Honor Graduate with a perfect 4.0 GPA.

Norville is a best-selling author and lecturer. Among her books is “Thank You Power: Making the SCIENCE of Gratitude Work for YOU” (Thomas Nelson) which detailed the connection between gratitude and enhanced cognitive function and energy. “Thank You Power” was a New York Times best seller and a best seller in South Korea. It has been published in more than a dozen languages. Deborah is also a contributor to the popular “Chicken Soup for the Soul” series, and the author of several other self-help books as well as two best-selling children’s books and a number of books featuring knit and crochet patterns.

Norville is on the board of the Broadcasters Foundation of America. She is also a member of the Council on Foreign Relations, Women Corporate Directors, and the New York Women’s Forum and is a past board member of the Girl Scout Council of Greater New York and the Rita Hayworth (Alzheimer’s) Steering Committee. She is married and the mother of three.

BILL GUARINELLO

Husband, Father, Grandfather and Friend

Your 51 years with HeartShare always have been challenging, but you stayed focused and never gave up.

Your strong values, loyalty, dedication and compassion combine to create the recipe to successfully guide your professional career and your personal life.

Your faith, love and hopes for your family, as well as for many others in your life, are a proven testament to your humaneness.

Throughout our lives together, you have taught us, and others, to dig deeper, believe stronger, never give up on life and trust more fully in our faith and in our God.

We love you, Billy ~

Your family,

Donna, Ali, Santo and

the joy of your life, Gianna Nicole

On behalf of the Benfante Family,

I would like to take this special opportunity to congratulate both the past and present HeartShare Gala Honorees.

I have had the special honor to serve as a member of the Board of Directors of HeartShare since 2011 and also to serve on the Board of Directors of HeartShare St. Vincent's Services from 2014 to 2016. I have been truly blessed to be a part of such a wonderful group of people, who enhance the everyday lives of so many individuals and their respective families. Therefore, I would like to thank those who sit on those Boards, who give their time and generosity and who provide tireless efforts to those in need.

HeartShare has a special meaning to myself and to all of the individuals with special needs, including my son Joseph Benfante, Jr., a lifelong recipient of HeartShare services, who resides in the Attardi Residence, located in Brooklyn, New York. If it were not for HeartShare, my son Joseph would never have been given the opportunities he has been afforded, which have enabled him to live his life to the fullest, with a group of people he refers to as his "other family." I will forever hold HeartShare Human Services of New York close to my heart, as well as the individuals who are a part of Joseph's everyday life. Thank you HeartShare for everything you have done!

Neurodiversity Hiring Initiative

2022 Neurodiversity Hiring Initiative

See yourself here.

At Goldman Sachs, we believe who you are makes you better at what you do. We seek out people with all types of skills, interests and experiences. So whether you've been trading penny stocks since the eighth grade or have never imagined a career in finance, there's a place for you here.

The Neurodiversity Hiring Initiative is an eight-week paid internship program for people who identify as neurodiverse* and aims to empower and integrate neurodiverse people into our workplace. In our third year of the program, we are offering roles in our Engineering and Operations divisions.

We are committed to fostering an environment that welcomes and celebrates all ideas and perspectives. Through robust training, coaching and mentoring, the program will position participants for the long-term career path that they deserve.

Note, applicants will need to attend a one day virtual workshop and a three week virtual assessment run by our partner, Specialisterne, in order to be considered.

PROGRAM & APPLICATION DATES:

Please check back in the fall for official dates

ELIGIBILITY:

Applicants should identify as neurodiverse* and have a Bachelor's degree.

Work experience is not required.

*Neurodiversity covers a wide variety of neurological differences, including autism, dyslexia, developmental disorders, mental health conditions, and ADHD

Make things possible.

Interested potential applicants can find the application, detailed job descriptions and information on participating locations at specialisterneusa.com/recruitment
